“ I am so very proud to have had the privilege of being one of Mary's caretakers over the past few months. She was a delight to be around, talk to, and hear stories. She was so full of love for everyone. We laughed together, cried together and just became really good friends which is so wonderful to have such a friend as well as employer. I will never forget her. In observing her in the kitchen when she was able to be there, I knew she was a very good cook and very good planner. To see the massive amounts of canned foods she had done made me know how hard a worker she must have been when her health was better. Her tax knowledge was unsurpassed . I will miss her so badly but will rest in knowing that she most assuredly Home with the Lord today. I celebrate her life. Evelyn Jefferson

“ Aunt Mary was always loving toward me. She was ten years older than I was. As a young child, I was in awe of what it must be like to be a young, married woman. She was the closest one that I knew, so I watched and learned. I remember thinking about how beautiful she was on her wedding day and how she and Uncle Ben glowed in their affection for each other. As a teen, she helped me to get a part-time job as a filing clerk at the insurance agency where she worked in downtown Chattanooga. I would ride the bus to the office and she would always give me a ride home. She provided an excellent role model for how to conduct myself in a professional setting. I am so grateful for the role she played in my life. I love you, Aunt Mary!
