“ Myself : StevePayne and my friends John McDaniel and John Little all have great memories of Tommy at CVS and local filling stations in the Valley where we all hung out and solved the world's problems.

“ What do you say about Tommy Kiser? To me he was the be all, end all of brothers-in-law. Always friendly, always cordial and a sense of humor that was hard to match. I could go on forever with stories about Tommy if I just could still remember all of them. He did and said things that would make you laugh when it happened and then still make you laugh 30 years after it happened. Even my mother liked him and that's really saying a lot. He treated my wife and kids just as well as he did me. Just a year after he married my sister they took me in and let me live with them for an entire summer. Tommy even had me a job when I got there and then when I decided to work somewhere else didn't fuss a bit about it. He was just that kind of guy. So what do you say about Tommy? This is what I have to say - - - If you knew Tommy you liked Tommy - forever. Rest In Peace
Tommy and I pray someday we will meet again.
