

Alan Lamar Wooten

October 2, 1955 - September 1, 2015

Alan Lamar Wooten, 59, of Flintstone, GA passed away Tuesday, September 1st, 2015. He graduated from Lakeview High School and was a lifelong resident of North Georgia. He had worked for Blue Cross Blue Shield for 37 years before retiring in 2011. Lamar loved music & had played for many bands, most recently playing the bass in The Boulevard Bards. He was preceded in death by his father, John Wooten Jr.

Survivors include his mother, Margie Elleman of Fort Oglethorpe, GA; son, Christopher (Carrie) Wooten of Hampstead, NC and grandson, David Wooten.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 am Saturday, September 5, 2015 in the funeral home chapel. Interment will follow in Tennessee Georgia Memorial Park. Family will receive friends Friday from 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm at the funeral home. Arrangements by W.L. Wilson & Son Funeral Home – Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

Cemetery Details

Tennessee/Georgia Memorial Park

724 Hogan Rd.
Rossville, GA 30741
(706) 866-5533

Tribute Wall

“ Lamar, you will be fondly remembered by many who knew you at BCBST, including myself.

Joan Nasso - September 06, 2015 at 10:24 PM

JD

“ My dear Lamar. We shall all be together one fine day. Rest easy friend. Your Janice

Janice Davidson - September 06, 2015 at 02:33 PM

CB

“ I remember a dear teenager who graduated Lakeview High, had a great laugh & loved to play guitar with Cisco & friends. I pray his family is comforted by memories of laughter & music.

Charlene Blankenship - September 05, 2015 at 02:25 PM

SH

“ Lamar was one of the true friends that I made shortly after starting my career at BCBST 30+ years ago. It breaks my heart to hear that Lamar is gone. He was the kindest, sweetest, most genuine person that you could ever meet. His smile would actually light up the entire room no matter what the occasion. He will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers go to his family...may you find peace in this time of sorrow. Sandy Hughes

Sandy Hughes - September 04, 2015 at 08:52 PM

EG

“ Never has there been a father more proud of his son or a man so thrilled to become a grandfather. We did not have the pleasure of knowing Lamar for more than a few years but were honored to call him family. A sweet, gentle soul on earth now a fierce guardian angel in heaven watching over his loved ones to keep them safe. With our greatest love and respect, Bob and Beth Greene

Elizabeth Greene - September 04, 2015 at 03:25 PM

JF

“ Jamie and Ashlee Born (Sarasota, FL) purchased the Crystal Cross Bouquet for the family of Alan Lamar Wooten .

Jamie and Ashlee Born (Sarasota, FL) - September 04, 2015 at 12:06 PM

MW

“ I can't believe your gone. He gave so many great memories to take with us. Margie my prayers are with you . Love Malinda Jenkins Walker malinda m jenkins walker - September 04, 2015 at 10:23 AM

KS

“ Lamar was a great friend to me, worked for years with him at Blue Cross. You are truly loved and will be greatly missed. Good bye stranger, no stranger than me. A saying me and Lamar always had. I miss our talks at lunch. I will see you again one day. I know you are playing some sweet music up there. Thoughts and prayers with your family now and forever. Love you my friend.

Karen Shadix - September 04, 2015 at 08:59 AM

KS

“ Karen Shadix lit a candle in memory of Alan Lamar Wooten

Karen Shadix - September 04, 2015 at 08:53 AM

D(

“ Diane Welch (Jo) lit a candle in memory of Alan Lamar Wooten

Diane Welch (Jo) - September 04, 2015 at 08:24 AM

JR

“ Lamar was a truly fine person who will be greatly missed by those who knew him. I count myself privileged to have known him and played with him in the past.

Jim Reece

Jim Reece - September 04, 2015 at 07:53 AM

CA

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Carol - September 03, 2015 at 09:59 PM

SA

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

scott allison - September 03, 2015 at 09:52 PM

 Karen Phillips

“ Karen Phillips lit a candle in memory of Alan Lamar Wooten

Karen Phillips - September 03, 2015 at 09:45 PM

“ Lamar was such a sweet and nice person. I knew Lamar from working years at BlueCross. He will be missed. Peace be to his family. Melinda Stevenson

Melinda Stevenson - September 03, 2015 at 09:00 PM

RT

“ Lamar joined our band when he was still in high school. The first time we played together he showed up with an SG Pro which was an unusual and not too common model, but also exactly like mine. We enjoyed many good times together along with Andy Belcher, Waymon Hartline, and Terry Fugate. When Terry left Lamar made the switch to bass and has been playing it ever since. The band broke up after several years - not too long after he started working in the mysterious world of computer programming for Blue Cross during a time when very few had any real knowledge regarding computers. Fast forward a decade or so later and we reconnected when he became bass player for the band I was in at the time, Ton Ton Macoute. We lost touch for the most part after he quit but would see each other from time to time when one of us had a gig somewhere. We reconnected a while back and discovered that we had both recently acquired an SG, which gave us both a good laugh. Lamar was a great bass player who never lost his love of playing and entertaining. Hats off to you, my brother in music, God Bless and Godspeed.

Richard Tate - September 03, 2015 at 08:35 PM

SA

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

scott allison - September 03, 2015 at 08:30 PM

NM

“ Lamar was a close friend in high school and one of the earliest influences I had of progressive music. He was a talented and passionate man and will be missed by many. May the Lord bring peace and comfort to his family and friends in the difficult days ahead.

Nannette Devine Maxwell - September 03, 2015 at 08:28 PM

CH

“ Carol Hansen lit a candle in memory of Alan Lamar Wooten

Carol Hansen - September 03, 2015 at 08:04 PM

CH

Lamar, you were a co-worker and a friend. You were very passionate in everything you did, wanting the best outcome in everything you touched; including my 50th birthday party. We are blessed to have been a part of your life and have faith that we will see you again. Rest in peace, our friend. Carol & Bob

Carol Hansen - September 03, 2015 at 08:16 PM

Buddy Shirk

“ Buddy Shirk lit a candle in memory of Alan Lamar Wooten

Buddy Shirk - September 03, 2015 at 07:55 PM

Buddy Shirk

A high school friend that believed in my organ playing and encouraged me to do things musically I thought were not possible for me. We lost Tim, so soon after trying to put together "Prophet" & now we lost our inspiration from that period so long ago, but seems like yesterday. We kept in touch & I will miss him & his music. Lamar say hello to our Tim, and you can now enjoy the ultimate jam session.

Buddy Shirk - September 03, 2015 at 08:01 PM

RD

“ Born to amuse-to inspire-to delight; here one day, gone one night. Like the sunset dying with the rising of the moon.....gone too soon.....”

Michael Jackson wrote these words to honor his friend Ryan White. I am writing them to honor my friend Lamar. A kind, gentle man who loved God, his family, friends and his country. Rest in peace.

Rebecca DeBord

Rebecca DeBord - September 03, 2015 at 06:16 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Alan Lamar Wooten .

September 03, 2015 at 06:15 PM

JB

“ It breaks my heart to hear that Lamar is gone. He was the sweetest, kindest, most genuine person that you could ever meet. His smile actually lit up the entire room and I will miss him beyond words. He was a true friend and I will never forget all the good times that we shared, all the laughs, smiles and music. My thoughts and prayers go to his mom, son and the rest of his family...may you find peace in this time of sorrow.

Jamie Born - September 03, 2015 at 05:34 PM

SW

“ Lamar was one of the first friends I made after beginning my career at BCBST 31 years ago. He was passionate about all things in life that are important (God, family, friends, music, and so much more). I will cherish his friendship and the many wonderful memories.

Sharon Woodard - September 03, 2015 at 05:00 PM

AM

“ Andrea Milligan lit a candle in memory of Alan Lamar Wooten

Andrea Milligan - September 03, 2015 at 04:19 PM

AM

I worked with Lamar for 27 years. No better co-worker or friend could one have. He was too young, and I will miss him. Thoughts and prayers to his family.

Andrea Milligan - September 03, 2015 at 04:20 PM

DB

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

David Blancett - September 03, 2015 at 03:08 PM

DB

Thanks for 40 + years of friendship Lamar.

David Blancett - September 03, 2015 at 04:45 PM

KN

“ Lamar's smile and passion will never be forgotten.

Kimberly Norcross - September 03, 2015 at 02:37 PM

DP

I have been friends with Lamar since we were small children, such wonderful memories. Prayers for his family.

Denise Holland Poarch - September 03, 2015 at 02:40 PM

DC

I have known Lamar since 4th grade, very nice guy, taken way too young. Prayers for his family.

Donna Coley - September 03, 2015 at 04:31 PM