“ I am so sorry for your loss. I found out about both today when I read the paper. I had just seen Mrs. Betty at shop rite not to long ago and then I open the paper today and find that you have lost both of them. I always enjoyed both for so many years. Ed was a joy to work with at Hammond Jones.....I will never forget the day a bull calf was born....Ed came to work and said he could pick up the calf....he told me there was no way the calf could gain enough wait in a day and keep him from lifting it as long as he did it every morning and every night. I wil always remember the silly grin on his face a few weeks later when I asked him if he was still lifting that bull calf.....he smiled that silly smile and said....if I could only get close enough...I would pick him up. I think about him every time I have a calf born. I am so sorry for your loss and hate that I didn't find out in time to make it to the funeral....God bless
