“ It is still hard to believe that you are really gone. I love you, Pete. I am sorry I did not get to see you before you passed. Your Sister, Linda. I filled out your family tree as best as I could. Most of the dates are missing. If I get a chance to put them on before they take the memorial down, I will. Something to leave your grandchildren.

We were not well acquainted with Pete, but Mike worked with we believe his wife, Dixie. Even though we have lost touch with her, if indeed we are correct in believing this was her husband we are sending our deepest sympathies to her and the family. If we are mistaken, then God bless this family with peace and grace in any case.
