“ Momma It was my great honor to be able to take care of for the last 13 months especially the last 6 1/2 months after you moved I with me. You and I grew closer every day. I have memories that will last me a life time. My most precious memories I have is when you couldn't sleep and you wanted me to lay down with you and hold you until you would fall asleep. Just like you did me when I was little. You wouldn't call me by name but you called me momma which caused my heart to melt. Yes of course I have memories going all away back to my child hood but these last 6 1/2 months are priceless to me. Momma do you remember when we went to Florida for a family vacation and you and me went to the beach to lay out in terms son. You ran back to the room and I feel asleep in the sun and got fried. It wasn't fun at that moment but I look back at that and just laugh. Oh another priceless moment would be when you didn't feel good but if daddy walked in the room your beautiful face you light up so bright and you would say theres my baby. Momma the say you left a huge part of my like went with. Between you and Grandmother, I have the best two angels watching on me now. There are so many more memories I have but I want to leave room for others. Momma you will ve greatly missed by me. I bet you are teaching the Angels how to cook good ole country food and your secrets on raising beautiful flowers. We will see each other real soon. I love you Momma.

“ I have soo many memories of my sweet precious momma! It's so hard to just try to pick one. I have them from the time I was little all the way up till this past June 2015. There was some happy, sad, crazy, hysterical, embarrassing, and even pull your hair out moments! She was by my side all growing up putting me in pageants and always with me thru all of my modeling career. Then are the special moments when I loved helping her cook a huge Thanksgiving dinner and cleaning for the family to squeeze in her house. Then came Christmas. Which that meant cleaning, cooking, making all her special candies and chocolates. Then last but not least most definitely decorating her Christmas Tree that was her pride and joy. Also all of her million decorations inside and out. Then how close she and I got spending all that time in my Triplets NICU's. She was there with and for me day and night. Then the precious moments getting to take care of her the past 2 1/2yrs before she was taken away from me and died 7 months later. Momma you will most definitely not be forgotten, will be greatly missed, and I love you dearly
