“ I didn't know you were gone home to glory. I'm hurt that I didn't get to say goodbye. You were one of the first people. She was the first person I met at the Sewing job. I'm gonna miss you friend!

“ Jewel and I became friends when I moved to the neighborhood. we enjoyed going out for lunch or just talking. She was one of my dearest friends. After I moved to South Georgia we would keep in touch by talking on the phone. I treasure our friendship. I love you, Jewel. I'm looking forward to our reunion in heaven. Laura Garcia

“ I met Jewel just 7 or 8 years ago. In a very short time we became friends. Over the last several years, I would visit several times a week and we would usually break into a game or 3 of dominos. If I did not visit, I would give her a call. Every single day. If I missed a day without her knowing why, she would question me as soon as we talked, “Where you been?” It would always crack me up as she said it as if she was scolding me for not calling. She was strong willed and knew exactly what she did and did not want. Her family was important to her as she spoke of them past and present. Jewel was a dear friend and she will forever hold a place in my heart.

“ I cherish the friendship that I had with Jewel who was my neighbor for over 30 years. She shared gardening ideas and gave me plants. We would talk for hours. We visited often. I would stop by her house on walks with my dog Scruffy. We sat on her front porch often. I would load up Jewel and several other dear friends in the neighborhood for lunch at our favorite restaurants. We also enjoyed going to the many tea rooms at Christmas. Jewel and i shared our love of our Savior Jesus Christ. I sure will miss her until we meet again in Heaven.
