“ Dear family of Randy Niswonger, My heart is heavy for you during this most difficult time in your life. In times like this I want to remind you that the Christ Randy faithfully loved, served and shared with so many people is the same Christ that will be your strength. The day of the CTS 2015 July graduation, I talked with Randy in his office. He gave me info on some prospective students in my area. Then with joy in his words his conversation was all about his family and rightly so. One more reminder - we shall see Randy again. In Christ,

“ *Merrill and Family,
There really are no words to say express the sadness I felt to hear of your brother's passing.. I would like to leave a verse of comfort: Psalm 34:18 The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
My prayers are with you.*

“ When Glen Trundle called to give us the news that Randy had gone to be with our Lord, Pat and I were saddened to hear that. Then we recalled that Jesus Himself had much compassion on friends and family of Lazarus when he saw them mourning the loss of their friend and brother. And He knew He was just about to raise Lazarus from the grave. We pray that the Holy Spirit will encourage and comfort during this time of loss as we all look forward to the day we will see Randy again when we will all stand before our Lord and worship Him together.

“ I am so very thankful to have shared a part of my life with this loving man of God. He touched so many people with his gentle nature, his spirit of fellowship, his sense of humor and his genuine love for Christ. His faith never waivered and his love for me and my family was a true gift from God. Oleta, Josh and Kristina how wonderful it was to have a husband and father that truly loved you the way that Randy did. His influence on your lives will continue to touch men and women for generations to come. He loved you dearly and was extremely proud to be your husband and father. I am sad to know that there is no chance for me to ever sit with him and discuss issues the way we did in years past. But, I take joy in knowing that many of our discussions in the past, were surrounded by our Hope that is Jesus Christ for our eternity. I will forever be grateful to you for allowing me to be a part of your lives. I know sorrow at this moment, but the last thing your husband, your father and my friend ever said to each other was "I love you." I know how good it made me feel at that moment. I can only imagine what it was like when Randy finally heard those same words spoken from the mouth of Christ. He finished the course.
