“ Allen Tate was one of my oldest and closest friends. I loved him like a brother. We share memories that are too numerous to mention, and for that I am grateful. Allen had a heart of gold and had a depth to him that he did not often let others see. I am in shock as I know so many others are. Diane and Gina, there's hardly a minute that I'm not thinking of you. He loved you both so much. He was truly proud of his family, and for good reason. There will never be another like him. I love him and miss him terribly.
