“ Sending love and peace from our family to you all. I met your sweet Amanda at the Halloween festival in Trenton, where we were manning a table for the Bookstore. She was very tired, but she was pleasant, and I saw her smile at least once. She enjoyed seeing the kids in costumes as they paraded by. I can't imagine the depth of grief you all are going through, but hoping each day brings peace and comfort. with love from the Kreuser Family (Drew, Kate, Ad, Emma, Jasmine, Zach and Hamilton.)

“ When we first met you, Amanda, you were just 10 years old. Even then, as we blended our two families together, I loved you as if you were my own daughter, and how couldn't I. Your smile and your laugh was infectious, and we will always look back at the time we all spent together, as some of the best years of our lives. Whether it was softball games or doctors appointments, you always found a way to make us smile. Even when you lost your daddy or were giving yourself another one of the countless finger sticks checking your sugar, you always had a way of making those around you feel better. I know in my heart that you will be doing the exact same thing for all of us, as we all find a way to heal the broken hearts that we have at your sudden and heartbreaking passing. I know that your family and friends, and anyone who had the privilege of knowing you like we did, loved you very much. Over the years, and regardless of the distance or circumstances that life has thrown at us, whenever we did see you, you always gave us the most amazing hugs and made sure that we knew that you still loved us as much as ever. Amanda, we will all be together again someday, but I pray that you will always remember how loved you are and we will never forget it how blessed we were to have known you. We love you now and forever. Tom and Brandon Nowakowski

“ You were one of my best friends in middle school. I still remember all of the fun, crazy, drama filled, bittersweet, childish times that we had. I know your mom, sister and son loved you so so much. Your son is the same age as my daughter and my heart breaks for him but I am thankful he had the 7 years he did with you. I know you were the best momma. Rest easy girl, I can't believe you are gone but I know you are rejoicing over being with your daddy again!

“ This is still hard to believe and it breaks my heart ,but atleast your in no more pain. I love you Amanda i'm going to miss you and im thankful I got our memories to hold on to. The long conversations, the tears we shed ,and the laughter til we twinkled on ourselves lol! I know you busted Heavens gates wide open and ran straight into your daddys arms. The thought in itself puts a huge smile on my face as I know you were smiling ear to ear. You will never be forgotten little sis , thats for sure! Give daddy chris a high five for me. I love you! always your big sis Tisha🥰
