“ Amber you were such a Beautiful Woman. I wish you could've gotten past your tremendous heartache. I've always thought about that, what you had been through in your life at such a young age. It would've crippled the strongest person what you had to deal with in your life. My Angel is with his Angel again. I can see his huge smile when he first saw you. We always loved you Sweetie, and I know you loved my Son. For that I thank you for giving him such a Storybook Love and 2 of the most precious young ladies that just makes my heart swell. To have dealt with all their tragedies and to shine like they do it just amazes me. They are so Respectful, loving and just a joy to just talk to. They don't follow no Crowd or Niche just because everyone else is doing it, or it's the new thing so we gotta go with the flow. No, these two are thinkers for themselves. Tell Craig all about them girl. You will forever be missed here on earth, but you are reunited with Craig and the baby, so I know you are at peace finally..... Love your other Mother (Susie).... Till we meet again!!

Amber was one of my very best friends. She had been reunited with the love of her life and her baby girl. The one thing that has given me some peace over the last week. I will continue to check on the girls and be the very best aunt to them as I can be. They are so strong! Love you and until we meet again.

So many special memories I have of our daughter-in-law Amber. I'm trying my best to say the right words at this very difficult time. Susie and I are truly thankful to know you were part of lives, We always loved you and always hoped for the best. Your daughters Kaylea and Taylor are very beautiful young ladies. They are truly a beacon of light in our lives, Allen Craig married his true soul mate. Give him a hug for us.. You will always be missed.
