

Amy Laura Robertson

September 30, 2013

Mrs. Amy Lara Robertson, 75, of Valdosta, Georgia, and a former longtime resident of Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, died on Monday, September 30th. She was preceded in death by her parents, Hardy Milton Crane and Opal Smith Crane, and her husband of 43 years, James Edward Robertson.

Survivors include a son and his wife, Jimmy and Suzanne Robertson of Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia; a daughter and her husband, Bill and Lara Blanchard of Valdosta, Georgia; four grandchildren and their spouses, four great-grandchildren; two great grandbabies expected in the near future; a sister, Phila Crane of Pensacola, Florida; a sister and her husband, Larry and Mary Back of Pensacola, Florida; and several nephews and nieces.

Amy Lara was a Christian who had the gift of service. She was devoted to her family and spent most of her life as a loving caregiver to several different members of her family. Her favorite biblical passage was the twenty-third Psalm, and her favorite hymn was Amazing Grace. We are so thankful that her faith in Jesus Christ has resulted in her reunion in heaven with her Lord and many other departed Christian loved ones.

There will be a graveside service only at the Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park Cemetery at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, October 2, 2013. Arrangements are by W.L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Home-Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Tribute Wall

BT

“ Dear family of Amy Roberts,
It is with deepest sorrow that I write to express how blessed I was to have known and loved Amy. Through her daughter, Jessica, I witnessed her love & devotion for her children. My heart is broken knowing that she will not see them grow to adulthood. I pray that this heavenly angel, whom God called home way too soon, will watch over this beautiful family, bring comfort to their hearts, and blessings to their lives. God be with you now and forever. Bonnie Beetham

Bonnie Beetham - Cadiz, OH - Friend/Jessica's 1st gr. teacher - October 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM

LF

“ Amy set good examples in life which did not go unnoticed by Lara (daughter). We have witnessed Amy's caring nature through Lara's total dedication to her mother over these past months.

We will continue pray for you all in the days to come.

Love,

Lee & Brenda

Lee & Brenda Hatcher - Valdosta, GA - friends - October 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM