“ There are no words to say how sorry I am for this wonderful family's loss. I did not know Andrea that well, but the few times I did get to be around her she was always happy, kind, and loved her family. She will be missed greatly. Miss Angie, I love all of your family.

“ I have so many memories of this wonderful, lovely woman! She was persistent and continued on a path with determination!. She always wanted to become a nurse in high school and I am so glad she was able to reach that goal. I loved her smile and have been so proud to be her friend and loved keeping up with her and Adam on Facebook. One of the biggest laughs and one of biggest frustrations came one night at Ridgeland High during an Open House event. My class room was on the end of the hall and so I never really had visitors during these type events. I went into my storage room for something (leaving my cell phone on my desk of course) and the door handle came off in my hand. So I had no way to get out. Well here I am stuck in my storage closet at about 8 pm at night with no hope of anyone checking on me. I tried to think how I could get out and there was no way. I was in there about 30 min and was beginning to think I would be spending the night there. Then all of the sudden I heard someone come in the room talking and it was Andrea and her Mom. I started beating on the door and they let me out.....We laughed that I literally "came out of the closet"...Andrea had come to her sister's open house and wanted to stop by to visit with me....God knew I needed that Angel at that time! I cannot imagine this world without her smile and laughter. I know God has a plan but right now I don't understand at all.....Praying for all the family that God will send you comfort and love.

I just read this! It touches my heart to read how Andrea blessed people. The world is missing an angel, but heaven gained a beautiful one.
