“ I served with SFC Kittle at Fort Gordon, GA in 1966 & 1967. He was the top-of-the-line soldier. He taught me much, supported me, and was often a friend after hours. I shall never forget my service with him.

“ You've know been home with the Lord, Momma, the boys & your siblings for almost a month and my heart is still shattered by giving you up Daddy. Oh how I long for just one more talk, one more story, one more time to hear you tell me " I love you baby"! When I was a little girl. I followed you every step you took. I just wanted to be everywhere you were. My whole life you've introduced me as "your baby daughter". You LOVED & ADORED all 13 of you Granddaughters & just beamed when you'd talk about any of them! When we found out Momma had lung cancer, we had to be a team to take care of her and I believe that was the lords way of bringing us together. I had you for 7 years after Momma went to be with the Lord but it still feels like I got cheated. I Miss you & love you so very much Daddy
All my love

“ Pawpaw, you've always been there for us grand-girls. I usually knew where to find you, at the kangaroo or the old Krystal's, and you'd have a big smile and a twinkle in your ol' blue eyes. How I dearly miss hearing you call me baby in a voice that is forever in grained in my mind and heart. My earliest memory is when you picked me up to see a bird nest in a high birdhouse. Last week I noticed that birdhouse and how I was taller than the birdhouse that you made fell like had touched the sky when you picked me up. With all human imperfection I love you and can't wait to share the tales of a big ol' Kittle man who could befriend anyone and make the saddest person in the world crack a smile. Love you PawPaw!!!
~ love, you're baby.

“ Jack was our next door neighbor for many years. He was more like family to us, and our children looked up to him like a grandfather. He was one of the finest men that we have ever known.

“ My prayers and condolences to all of Jack's Family.

Jack you were like a grandfather to me when I lived next to you on Laurel Circle. I remember spending so many hours just sitting and chatting with you in your garage about various topics. The time that I was able to spend with you continues to be one of my most cherished memories.

“ I am going to miss you pawpaw. I am going to miss your fishing and farming stories the most. I loved how you told the one about me-maw wanting to catch a fish as long as her leg. I loved it when you would sit down at the fruit-stand with me everyday until I stopped working there. I enjoyed shooting the breeze with you and Austin. I can still see you sitting down at the Kangaroo and introducing me to a stranger as " one of the twins out of 13 granddaughters". You never knew a stranger where ever you went. I loved getting updates from you on the funny things that Jessie and Savannah (aka our little turtle-man) did the day before. Like when Savannah thought she would herd the goats before everyone woke up, the smile on your face was priceless. You ended every phone call and visit with bye bye, luv you hun. You had a "warm heart" pawpaw and we have so many great memories of you. Luv you pawpaw and I will always take you fishing with me in my heart wherever I go.

“ The first time I met Jack was on his way to Vietnam at McChord AFB. Jack sure was a character. He would always wrap you in his arms with a big hug and a kiss, with a smile on his face. He will be missed. But I take comfort in the thought that he's with his family again, on the other side watching out for us. From a fellow Veteran, I salute you Jack. Love, Gale

“ I love you Paw Paw. I will miss driving into Laurel circle and coming up the stairs and hearing "Hello little Darling". and what are the "little Kittle girls" up to today? I will miss you whopper stories, the ones so unbelievable, you didn't know if they were true. I have missed your white truck sitting at the gap "counting cars" and him sitting at the Kangaroo, "running it". and I will miss him never asking for anything but knowing if he said "your Memaw used to make the best...", knowing that I would have to go make it for him. I will miss him saying "luv you" the most. Love , all your little Kittle girls..

“ This name rang a bell oh so fast! And saying Ringgold..I "knew" Jack, come to think about it he (Jack) never really mentioned being involved (bragged) in so many adventure's (Airborne,instructor etc) as most would have done..Jack was at one time my Supervisor at Wheland Foundry. It's strange..i was looking a one of the "old" magazine's of the past and there's Jack! I worked under Jack in the melting dept. at one time...i still can see those darked up glasses (prescriptoin type) Jack was the quiet type..that got the JOB done! Jack was my type Supervisor...he mostly observed...And yes...if something was'nt correct or going in the wrong direction...you'd be advised! (smile) When i hear Ringgold i don't know why ..but i associate Ringgold with George Rhinehart also..who also was very observant..kept the ball rolling..noticed the "smallest" of things.. (smile) One day (releifman loop #6) i was putting a "wheel" on a ladle..improperly using my channel locs..OH! George picked up on that!...yes, he helped me to get it right! One day (releifman on loop #2) George ...just walking and observing... "showed" me somethings about the "pick off"...it was simple BUT oh how this knowledge saved me from possible bodily harm...What he "educated" me about i actually saw a Supervisor really put himself in harms way by NOT doing what George Rhinehart said to do when using the pusher on manual. I can say, Jack,a good man will be missed by each and everyone that knew him. And it's sad how a family have to loose such a person. PRAYER'S/ THOUGHTS out to the KITTLE family and FRIENDS!
