“ I didn't get the opportunity to meet any of the Littejohn family other than Landon. He and my son(Collyn) played football @ Shorter together. I know this is a difficult time for the whole family, but I'm asking GOD to wrap y'all in His loving arms and give each and every one of you peace and comfort during this difficult time.

“ Truly and influential part of my life. Words are not easy at this time. Love you Kim, Landon, and Jerrica!! You will always be on my prayer list. I have always said everything happens for a reason but for me this is hard to justify. I pray for peace and love and comfort for you all and will put my trust in the Lord . We will meet again one day!

“ I remember Andy's smile and easy going attitude. I remember dinner at Red Lobster with Kim and Andy and making an innocent remark that made him spew coke all over the table. I remember a friend who grieved with me and laughed with me. Sunshine on the lake, fast rides in cars...and him saying "watch this." ... right before aggravating Kim. Love you all and thankful for memories.

“ Kim, Landon and Jerrica

Words cannot express how my heart breaks for you in this time of loss. Andy was a wonderful father, husband, and person. He had the most wonderful sense of humor and so much love in his heart. I thank him for extending himself and being such a great role model and cheerleader in Nick's life. Andy not only was a great father to his own children but he had a vast extended family that he adopted to be his own. Memories will live on in our hearts and how much he meant to his family and everyone's path he crossed in life. I know they have a Jeep in heaven with his name on it! love ya'!!!

“ We are better for having had your presence in our lives. Our family's have shared many victories and defeats together. We will miss Andy with our hearts and souls down deep where few touch your spirit. However, we will continue to share our daily lives with his memory and keep him in our thoughts and most precious memories. He left a legacy of warmth and good will with friends and family that magically touched all he came in contact with. Through adversity we will overcome and go on to make him proud of the values and wisdom he shared and bestowed upon us. May he find peace and paradise waiting for him on this new journey.

“ I thank the Lord that about 2 months before Andy was diagnosed I asked him to hand me some debbie cakes at Bilo. They were on sale and I couldn't reach them.....he made a joke then said what's your name. I told him and he said I thought so....it's me Andy Littlejohn. I couldn't believe it! With the busyness of life it had been way, way to long since we'd seen each other...Of course I am beyond thankful for the neck hug and the conversation we had all thru Bilo, catching up on our families.....That being said he was fresh on my heart when I heard the news and my Kim and I prayed and prayed for him. Now we'll continue to pray for all of you daily. Words can be so inadequate, that's why I'm so thankful that I can truly say I'll be praying for you.....

“ I have known all of you ever since I can remember. My dad was friends with Andy way before Landon and I were thought of! I remember coming to your house all the time growing up when yal lived on 151. W would keep yal up all hours of the night and Andy come in there telling us to go to bed he had to work lol...The haunted hayride we had when his tractor ran out of gas lol...So many memories made with an amazing family! I love you all!

“ Kim,

I just heard about Andy and, although I never met him, I feel as though I know him from all of the stories we've shared since you became my travel agent 21 years ago. I know that he was a good man since he put up with you all of these years! Please know that Andy, you, and your family are in my thoughts and prayers that God will find a way to comfort you all during this most difficult time. And I'm just joking with you about Andy putting up with you! From all accounts, you and he were truly soulmates and he's still right there with you in your heart.

God Bless you Kim,

Grant

“ Kim,
Please accept my condolences as you mourn Andy's passing. I have been praying for you all since I heard about Andy's diagnosis. I am so sorry he had to suffer the pain of cancer and you and your family now suffer the pain of your loss.

Andy and I met in elementary school and went through school together. I haven't seen him in 30 years now but I always remember what a kind person he was. He had a sweet smile and such a playful sense of humor. I remember how much he enjoyed making us all laugh as children.

I'm sure that your life together was filled with a lot of laughter and love. I will continue to pray for you as you grieve.

“ Paul and I are so saddened by the passing of this lovely guy.

We loved his wicked sense of humor. He and Kim sat with us at my nephew's Bar Mitzvah dinner and Andy made me do a "spit-take" when the cold soup was served - I don't remember exactly what he said, but it was a really funny.

My daughter Lisa says whatever he said to her after her wedding vows made her always remember he was absolutely on target about her feelings that day. He was very insightful.

We send our deepest condolences to his family and our love and prayers to Kim, Landon, and Jerrica.

“ *The time goes quickly by us,
These past few weeks have flown,
But God is with us always,
And closer to Him we've grown.*

*To lose a husband and father so special,
It seems than you can bear,
But take your troubles and burdens,
To our Lord in prayer.*

*Just know that Andy is watching
And thinking from Heaven above,
Just know that he sends his blessings,
And he promises you his love.*

*Andy is now one of your guardian angels,
One that's been given especially to you,
He will help to watch over your family,
And then will sometimes gently nudge you.*

*Andy's in the spirit of the books you read,
Your mind wandering gently where it can,
There's no more pain and suffering for him,
Jesus took Andy by the hand.*

*Jesus will guide and give you comfort,
And give you sweet peace of mind,
He will always be there for you,
Our Lord is One of a kind.*

*I know these words are not worth much,
But straight from my heart they did come,
Just remember to take your times of grief,
To our sweet Lord up above.*

Always remember that we are here when needed,

*Only a short phone call away,
But there's One that's even closer,
And He will never lead you astray.*

We love you three....
