“ I met Angela when she was a teenager working at Woolworths in Eastgate Mall. We became quick friends and kept in touch over the next twenty years but I lost track of her when I retired from the Chattanooga PD and moved away. I am very saddened to learn of her passing. Angela was one of those people you encounter in your life who leaves a lasting impression. RIP, Honey.

“ I was very saddened to learn of Angela's untimely passing. She had such a beautiful spirit within her, and her smile lit up any room she entered. I can still hear her giggle and laugh just like it was today. She came into my life when I was just a little girl and became someone I could look up to and turn to when I needed direction. Her advice was always uplifting and encouraging. She seemed fearless. Every time my eyes glance across the road from my childhood home I remember the countless days she would greet me whether early morning, late evening, or when all us kids were playing out in the street. My heart goes out to Glenn and Clinton and the rest of her family. I know she is definitely an angel guarding over them all.

“ Losing Angela has broken my heart. Although we were "new" friends, she was the kind of person you fall in love with immediately and feel as if you have known her forever. Her bright light will be with her Ellijay friends forever. My deepest sympathies and continued prayer for her family.

“ I regret that we had lost touch over the years. I truly loved Angela and still hold fawn memories when we were growing up. She would tag along like a little sister would when I would go to the game room and cruise Ft. O back in the day. She was one of my brides maid when I first got married. This has truly broken my heart. But she is with her mother (Patsy Ruth) and her father (Roy). My God bless her two loving brothers, Glenn and Clinton, along with her loving daughter Christine. I'm not saying Good-Bye. I am saying see you later Angela, you were like a little sister to me. I love you!
