“ I swore I would never tell this, but I have changed my mind! I WILL BE 70 YEARS OLD IN A COUPLE OF WEEKS AND I AM AFRAID I WILL KICK THE BUCKET BEFORE I TELL THIS :) Sorry Anita and Gina ... it's too funny to keep secret forever! I am Sheila & Anita is my 1st cousin . SHE IS THE DAUGHTER OF MY Aunt Rita (my mom Barbara Koger Radcliff's baby sister). GINA IS MY BABY SISTER. Anita told me that she and Gina used to skinny dip in the baby pool in our back yard and dance in the moonlight. They never got caught, or so she said... must be true because I always found out everything... being the nosy big sister is a tough job! So, now that the secret is out, did they ever tell anybody else ? Anita and Gina were just little "runts" when they did this. I am 8 years older than both of them, so I don't know how they slipped it by me! I love and miss you, sweet Anita. Love from cousin Sheila! p.s. I WAS PROBABLY THE BABYSITTER in charge while these two were out back howling at the moon!

“ In memory of my sweet cousin Anita... I remember that sweet, round baby face that reminded me so much of her mom in her younger years. I love and will miss her ... could not have asked for a kinder hearted person to share life with ... God took away the suffering. I know she is finally okay. Cousin Sheila

“ First, I want to say that Anita loved her family. First and foremost. She loved her friends and people in general. She was a lover of life. We grew up together and in that time she was my friend, my confidant, my wingman (and I hers) and my family. I miss you already, Nita.
