“ Nita you will always be my little cousin . We lost contact as we grew up but always family. Your Mom Aunt Helen and Dad Uncle James Brother Morris and Sister Myra were the kinfolks I always felt were my closest relatives I always felt your Moms relationship with God was the Silver lining to the hard times because she never lost her faith and that has changed my life for the better Nita I know your in Heaven now and Happy to see that your Mom’s faith was also yours and the Son of God has your hand and you are looking into the face of God and Jesus and Holly Spirit You are Loved on Earth by family and friends But the Love from the Almighty in Heaven is Your Gift Love
