“ Reba, we just learned last night about Edith's passing. She was quite a remarkable lady, who brought a smile to our face every time we met and made us feel (though it may have been months or years) that it had only been a brief time since our last visit. She was blessed with that gift and many others. (She played the piano at our wedding while Tommie sang.) Though Edith will be greatly missed, we'll see her again one day soon. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Don and Linda Landen

“ What a sweet sweet lady. I remember growing up at Pine Hill Baptist Church and Mrs. Edith always smiling. She was such a part of our family and life. My Dad was talking today that year before she was helping deliver the fruit baskets from church and she came with them to deliver one to him. She was such a Christian lady and I always looked up and admired her. She also gave the BEST bear HUGS!!! God got an angel today. Keeping the family in my prayers.
