“ Anthony was like a father figure to me. So kind and supportive of my music, I could listen to him play his guitar for hours. He is truly a beautiful human.

“ Anthony had a way of living straight out of his heart and even though he felt lost and out of place at times he also had an immense leadership quality... It's called decency... We laughed, cried, froze, starved and anything else you can imagine and we did it TOGETHER!! I WILL ALWAYS MISS YOU BROTHER!!

What a precious, sweet person, who will be missed greatly. My prayers are with all the family, for God's grace & peace to comfort you all with the loss of such an important part of your family. I remember the first time I met Anthony, 3 years old, full of energy, those chubby cheeks and beautiful red hair! Always a smile on his face. Love and prayers for you all.
