I have many memories of Aunt Arlene. One thing that stands out in my mind is I never ONCE remember her raising her voice or getting upset. Even at the pool she seem so calm all the time, even under stress. Not one time in all the years I have known her to raise her voice. I love and miss her so much. When I would call she always knew my voice. She never had to ask "who is this", she always asked about Mom too. She truly is an Amazing woman! My prayers go out for all her children.
