“ Arlon was a kind and caring man, no matter how he felt he would always check on my Mom (Dot Wilson), he thought of others. God Bless Sue and children, I'm sure there will be a void left in your heart. But just know he is with our Lord now and no more pain and suffering. Prayers going up.

“ We are going to miss you Uncle Arlon you called every weekend to check on us! I know the way you love the Lord so Rest High on that mountain until we are united! It rained today and a beautiful rainbow appeared. To be absent from the flesh is to be present with the Lord! You will be missed but not forgotten sweet Man! Love, Joey & Terri
