“ I didn't know Artha well, but I have known several members of her family for very long time. Her sister and I have been great friends over the years. My heart goes out to her family right now in this time of need. I pray that they all find comfort in each other. Her brother, sister, children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and her husband. You ALL have lost someone important in your lives. Console each other now, I believe she would have wanted it that way.

“ My momma was the BEST MOM IN THE WHOLE WORLD !!! At least in my world. She taught me how to love bc she loved me unconditionally !!! She taught me how to be understanding bc she was understanding with me. She was my BEST FRIEND !!! There wasn't anything that we couldn't talk about, we talked about everything !!! She gave me the best childhood I could have EVER asked for. I'm so glad that Jesus chose HER to give me to. She wanted me to tell her one thing that she'd said in my life that made a difference in my life. Well I can't think of just one thing, EVERYTHING she said made a difference in my life. She had so much wisdom. I gonna miss our daily calls, but I know she's still listening to me and I'll hear her in my heart. She always took my friends in and made them feel like they was one of hers. They ALL loved her and thought of her as a second mom. I'm gonna miss her more than ANY words can express. I Love You Momma !!!
Your one and only... Leslie

“ I have so many memories with Artha there's no possible way to share just one. I am Rhonda, Leslie's best friend if about 36+ yrs. Artha let me live with them s o end holiday and go on every vacation they went on from the time we met. She was a mother to me as well as my own. She has gawn above and beyond her calling in this life for a lot of kids that grew up around us. A lot that would not have turned out the way they have if not for her kind words. She's been an awesome mama to so many and will be sadly missed but what a joyful reunion we will have someday praise God. Spread your beautiful wings and dance with the angels Mama Artha see you one day I love you to the moon and back.
