“ We did Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, basketball and who knows what else together. A great man - fun, but also with a great purpose of right vs wrong. Art had a huge heart for kids, and would never say no to anything that might enrich their lives. There are a lot of young men out there who better off because Art had been in their lives. What a tremendous legacy!

“ We met him through Boy Scouts. The time, effort, and love he had for these boys will never be forgotten. We still laugh about stories involving Art. He kept it fun
