“ I will always remember Blackie saying, "I'm gonna sang you a song" He was always sweet & just as respectful as any man I have ever known. With the clearest blue eyes I have ever seen. I never knew Blackie in his younger days, but I heard he was a laies man. I can see why. I know he will be missed by many people..

“ Uncle Blackie will always be missed. I remember stories I heard that when I was only 4 or 5 years old I had a puppy. Blackie told me if I wanted more puppies that I needed to plant mine... I had that poor dog buried up to it's neck before they realized it. There are many more fond memories and stories that I will always cherish. I wish all of my family the best and love you all!

“ I am so sorry we missed Blackies funeral. We thought it was going to be tomorrow. he was a kind man, I can't ever remember seeing him treating anyone I was with harshly. He always had a kind word for me. I don't think we ignore our friends, we just think there will always be another time to stop by or call. Its not always that way. I can just imagine him & worm together again. A heartfelt goodbye to the man with eyes as blue as heaven.
