“ You were a beautiful, sweet girl with a kind heart. You were dealt an ugly hand honey, but I know that you're in a better place. The last time we talked, you broke my heart and I walked away wishing I could have somehow gotten you when you were little. I wished I could have been there for you. I know that you have found the peace that you didn't have here. I know you aren't in pain anymore. Rest easy little girl.

“ Ashley, I think about you all the time. I see pretty young girls that remind me of you! It breaks my heart that you are gone, but I know God knew what was best. I prayed for you many times, so I know he had a plan. God Bless you and Keep you Always. Love you, Susan “ Ashley you were amazing young lady to be so young. You were so funny and I just loved your dimples and that pretty smile you had. You will be missed by so many down here but you are in a better place now and with your mother. I'm sorry you left us so soon but GOD needed you back home. So now just enjoy all the angels there and watch over us while were down here in hell.

“ Ashley, we have so many loving memories of you, especially when you were a little girl & spent the summer with us in Florida. We had so much fun when we had our little tea parties; Pa even had little tea parties with you; just you & him. Your name was always "Lady" Ashley.

We know you are with Sherry now & that gives us some comfort. Your suffering on this earth is over now.

We will always love you & miss you.
