“ In life you make a lot of friends, but you are lucky enough to have a select few that feel more like family as you become closer and your bond becomes unbreakable. I was so blessed that Ashley was one of those friends of mine. I love that girl so much and she was always such a good friend to me. I'm so so sad for us here on Earth that have to live without her, but I am so incredibly happy that she gets to meet Jesus face to face and have an eternity with no pain or sadness. I love you Ashley. I'll see you later.

“ I had always had a special appreciation for Ashley even being young and in school with her. It was the way she would look at you intently when you had something to say. Like she was really interested in what you were saying and cared enough to look at you deeply in the eye like she was looking right into your heart. She could say so much with her eyes. She could make you feel so much better without saying a word, just by looking at you with this concerned, caring, loving look. I feel blessed to have this memory of her and will keep it close always. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family and all who loved her so much.

“ Carthell and Pam,

I am so honored to have known your sweet girl! She went to school with our Joshua and when we lost our Joshua she was working at Tennessee Memorial and was so compassionate and caring to me. She even came by my work a couple of times just for us to talk and share memories of Josh. I remember how important it was to her to have Josh's name put on the memorial stone at Rossville Recreation. Her hugs and sweetness were a true blessing to me. She will truly be missed!

Love you bunches!

“ Words cannot express how we feel for y'all in the loss of Ashley. We all go back to her birth. We remember coming to the hospital when she was born. That was the beginning. We remember all the Friday nights and Sunday nights going out to eat. The time several of us rented a cabin for the week end and how much fun we had playing games and flying kites etc. We went to Atlanta to hear Charles Stanley preach and of course he was out of town that week end, but we had a good time. We think about the Christmas gatherings. We remember going to Pam's parent's house for lunch after church on Easter or maybe Mother's day. There were many many more good times too many to mention at this time.

We were looking through some pictures about a week ago and found a picture of Ashley and Matt in the outfits we brought back from Hawaii for them.

She will be greatly missed by all her family and friends but she has left a lot of great memories we can reminisce about.

Both of you are special friends and we appreciate all you have did to help us through difficult times.

You will never know how much running around with y'all and the Nida's helped us through many lonely and empty days.

We are ready and willing to do anything we can to help y'all at this difficult time.

Love Ken and Jean

“ *Ashley was so much more than my friend she was my babygirl. I babysat her as a small child, i grew up with her, and as an adult i spent hours at doctors appointments and beside her hospital bed when she was admitted. I was her chauffeur to appointments and i treasured every moment i got to spend with her. I saw first hand how she suffered and fought, and will miss her dearly but find comfort in knowing she has a new restored body in heaven while she walks the streets of gold. Love u butterfly.
