

Aubrey Gamble McCurdy

November 11, 1934 - May 22, 2025

Aubrey Gamble McCurdy died Thursday, May 22, 2025 at the age of 90. Aubrey essentially lived her entire life in the Chattanooga area. She married and enjoyed being a mother and homemaker. After her sons grew up, Aubrey did home health assistance. She was an avid reader, mostly of British murder mysteries. She loved crocheting afghans and donating them to the church or someone in need. She truly enjoyed simple pleasures and got great joy going for a ride to shop or in stopping for a burger and milkshake.

Aubrey was the daughter of the late Nannie Loyd Gamble McGee and Ollie Aubrey Gamble. She was preceded in death by her beloved son, P. Keith McCurdy, her brother, Walter Loyd Gamble, and sisters Merle Gamble Lane Salmon and Pat (Hattie) Gamble Bates.

Aubrey is survived by her cherished son, Lynn (Nancy) McCurdy, and grandson Ethan McCurdy. She also has several nieces and nephews. She had heartbreaking losses and much unhappiness in her life yet her nature was to be sweet, kind and loving. She had a steadfast allegiance to the Lord and relied on Him every day.

Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Tribute Wall

“ Lynn & family: So sorry to learn of the passing of your Mother! You're blessed to have had her as long as you did I, unfortunately, lost my mom when I was 20. Things will be different, but I know you will prevail. Please know I'm thinking about you and your family and send my deepest sympathy.

Sincerely

Brenda Latham

your retired TVA co-worker

Brenda Latham - May 28, 2025 at 09:23 PM