“ I can't think of any one else that was a momma figure to me, and a granny to my children. except granny Bobby. If there was a problem it always seemed she had the answer. You would hear her come over the hill, and watch the kids(all 900)of them look for granny Bobby, I know she was my landlord for a short time only 12 years, but she was more then that she was a kind loving person, a granny to all the kids and a momma to the rest of us. I'm sure going to miss Barbara but she will never be forgotten.

“ I love this dear sweet lady. What a blessing she was to me. I told her I was adopting her as my Mom a few years ago. She was also a good cook. I always was excited when I would get to sing at Midway when they were having dinner. She would show me what she cooked. Praying for the family. What a void left here on eaet, but heaven gained a saint.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of the Anderson Family today.... I read this someplace (Grief never ends...but it changes....Its a passage..not a place to stay..Grief is not a sign of weakness nor a lack of faith...It's the price we pay for love).....I've been crying since this morning when told...I can still hear her voice... just me and her talking outside one night at the cabin...she was telling me all about how she met Johnny...and how he was such a gentleman to her...she smiled...and one year when I didn't get anything for my birthday...she came walking out with what she knew was my all time favorite cake she made..A Coconut Cake..( I can still taste it )...I was so surprised and so touched I just busted out crying...pretty much like I did this morning when told. You made me feel like a part of your family...like I was one of yours....and for that I will forever be grateful.... I really am so happy I got to see you again...one last hug..one last I love you...well for now anyway...I'll see you again...and we'll sit ...just you and me and talk again and I can give you another hug...and another I love you...no more " Last Time" but til then...I will miss you deeply...

Love, Me

(if I signed Bobbie...I always felt like I was writing to myself from myself with her....smiling) God bless you all..and I am so very.truly sorry for your great loss.. from the bottom of my heart...

I will miss Mrs. Anderson. She was my first bus driver. When I started church at Midway she took me under wing and helped me find my way. She was a very loving person. She loved her family and gave so much of herself. I will cherish my memories of her .
