“ Barbara, you are not forgotten. You are still in my mind and in my heart. You have a beautiful daughter in Kathy. I got to meet her last week. She looks so much like you. It doesn't seem like a whole year since your passing. Your memory still stands here with us.

“ Barbara and I were friends from Junior High through High School and throughout the rest of the years. We were very close in school.... best friends. But as we married and had families to take care of ... we occasionally seen each other, called each other... kept in touch, and continued to be friends. Soon it will be Barbara's birthday. She will be missed very much by all of us and her family. Barbara's girls are in my prayers.. and I am sure Barbara has been reunited with her husband and son. God bless you girls. I love you.

“ GOD I LOVED BARBARA!!! She welcomed me into her home & heart so many years ago & I have been so blessed to bae an "unofficial" part of her family ever since. She was the sweetest lady who had the most wonderful sense of humor!! If you were lucky enough for her to love you.....she loved whole heartedly, unconditionally & fiercely!! I was lucky!! She was not only my best friend, Linda's mom, but she became like a mom to me. Thank you Linda for sharing her after my own mom passed away. I will miss Barbara so much but I know she is in Heaven & so excited to be reunited with Don, Chris & everyone else. My life was made so much better by Barbara being a part of it!! I love you my "unbiological" momma!!!

Barbara, when your daughter called me a few years ago to let me know of your passing. it was so nice of her. We had reconnected after so any years had passed. We were friends all thur Grade, Jr High, until I married a military man and off to see the world. Then we reconnected years later. And tonight I found your obituary by error while looking for a family that had past. Bringing me back to Tennessee. I am so glad you and Donald made a good team. Good Friend Rest in peace. It was a great relationship between us Shirley (Lofty) McDaniel from Florida
