“ I don't really know what to say. Me and Barbara were like sister's for so many years. She would give you her last dime if you needed it. Boy we used to have so much fun. I remember one time we when to spent the weekend with my aunt in Atlanta Georgia, and we were riding around, now first thing is this was in late 60's and we were riding down the road and there were these hippie's ever were the traffic was slow and this boy knock on her widow and he had a loaf of French bread and ask Barbara for some butter to put on his bread, Barbara looked at him and said boy are you crazy. I was rolling laughing. Barbara looked at me and she started laughing. That just a little story of my and her adventures. In the past four years I have lost four of my family members and now one more. When I came today I ready tried to see you but I couldn't. I'm just going to remember you as I always have. You always talked about wanting to go home. Well my sweet dear friend your home now. All I ask is just let me know some way that you are near and watching over me. You would say now Wanda. My sweet Angel.,Rest in peace my sister. Love you always your sister Wanda (Hall) Lindner.
