

Barbara Ann Morris

December 27, 1953 - December 27, 2014

Barbara Ann Morris, 61, of Chattanooga went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Saturday, December 27, 2014. She had lived in the Chattanooga area for most of her life and was a member of Calvary Memorial Baptist Church in Ringgold. She worked in retail sales and service for most of her life and was a Photo Lab Tech for Wal-Mart for several years. She enjoyed knitting, going to Church and being with her Church family and loved her animals.

Survivors include her husband of more than 11 years, Walter "Jerry" Morris of Chattanooga, TN; step-daughter, Kayla Morris of Rossville, GA; two best friends, Martha Wash and Linda Evans and numerous extended family & friends.

The family will receive friends from 1-9 p.m. Tuesday and prior to the service on Wednesday at the funeral home. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, December 31, 2014 in the Fort Oglethorpe Chapel with Rev. Eric Greeson officiating. Entombment will follow in the Tennessee-Georgia Memorial Park. Online guest book at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

“ Barbara was actually born May 10, 1953 in Ohio. She was married three times before and had 4 children with her first two husbands. She did not live in the Chattanooga area most of her life. She moved to Tennessee from Georgia around 1998-1999 where she married her third husband and then left him with so much debt he had to file bankruptcy. She had 5 grandchildren and 3 of them she met briefly, one she found out about the last time she talked to her daughter in 2008 and the last grandchild she never knew existed. Information on her isn't hard to find if you look up her many last names Collins, Fox, Jeansonne, Boyd and then her widow.

“ Barbara and I spent hour upon hour on the telephone talking about the Lord; talking about the power of prayer and the help available to us in dealing with life's difficulties.

Barbara was very ill but she fought as much as she could to keep going. She loved the Lord and she loved her husband and her friends.

I am going to miss her very much.
