

Becky Clark

November 11, 1959 - June 14, 2025

Becky Clark, age 65, resident of Ringgold, Georgia, passed away on Saturday, June 14, 2025 after a long battle with cancer.

Ms. Clark, daughter of Richard Wayland Clark, Sr. and Barbara Jean Burns Clark, was born November 11, 1959 in Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. She was Baptist by faith and had worked in retail for over 49 years. Ms. Clark was an avid Georgia Bulldog fan. She enjoyed taking trips to the beach, taking care of her yard, and sitting on her back porch with her two fur babies, Alex and Annibel. While inside, many would see her watching both classic and western movies, but particularly HGTV. She also enjoyed listening to country music. The family remembers her as an avid Georgia fan, and a lady who enjoyed spending quality time with her family and friends.

Ms. Clark was preceded in death by a brother, Richard Clark, Jr.; several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

She is survived by her parents, Richard and Barbara Clark of Ringgold, Georgia; a brother, Rex Clark of Atlanta, Georgia; two aunts, Edith (Mike) Brock of Lexington, Kentucky and Blanche Upton of Clover, South Carolina; many other relatives and friends.

The family will receive friends at Wilson Funeral Home Wallis-Stewart Chapel, 443 Boynton Road, Ringgold, Georgia on Saturday, June 21, 2025 from 4-7 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, Becky requested that contributions be made to the American Cancer Society at www.donate.cancer.org.

“ This has been a difficult week. Even though I only knew Becky for 9 years, she made a lasting impression on me. She was one of the hardest workers I’ve ever worked with and her love for her job and the people she managed was heart felt, they were her work family. Becky always was quick to see the best side of people and wanted them to be successful not only in their job but life as well. I’m a huge Tennessee fan, so you know how that went over with Bulldawg!! LOL. The banter back and forth was great!! We loved to give each other a hard time in a very fun way. I will miss Saturday’s in the fall. Becky and I would be texting back and forth all day with game updates and always rooting against Alabama!! LOL. I will be lost this fall without her and talking college football. I know that Becky is home now with her heavenly Father and is in peace!! Hallelujah!!

“ *In Loving Memory of a Wonderful Friend and Coworker Becky Clark
It's been many years since we worked in the trenches together, but I will always remember her bright smile from my day one , infectious laughter, and the joy she brought to every room. She was the kind of person who made work feel fun and friendship feel like family.
Such a proud Georgia Bulldogs fan (even though I'm a Tennessee Vol through and through we watched many games together!), she never missed a chance to cheer on her team with passion and pride and rub it in my face because we stunk!!. Her love for her precious fur babies, Annibel and Alex, was unmatched and they were so blessed to have her as a Momma.
She was always ready to lend a hand, share a laugh, or brighten someone's day. Her spirit was generous, her heart was kind, and her friendship was a gift I'll always treasure.
Rest in peace my friend. You will be missed.

“ I too knew Becky from our years spent together in school. I will always remember the pretty little girl with the big smile. I don't think I ever knew a more positive person. RIP my old friend. Until we meet again. My thoughts and prayers will be with the Clark family in the coming days and weeks.

Becky was a very cheerful , respectful , and she loved all. Especially her family and her babies!
She sprinkled cheers of happiness everywhere she went.
Becky will be missed by many who loved her so.
Until we meet again. Rest in peace.
Sending prayers for family and friends. 🙏🙏❤️

“ I was very shocked to hear of this. I did not know of her illness. Becky and I graduated high school together. She was always wearing a big smile and enjoying life. Including the times I have seen her over the years. I enjoyed keeping up with her on social media and her loyal updates on our UGA Dawgs. My wife Diane remembers her from RHS band. We were talking today about some of the shenanigans Becky took a part in with our classmate Jeff Atchley. Also in the band. Those two could make you laugh. We will be thinking of the family in the coming days.
