“ He was a simple loving God man, no matter how depressed I would be he would always cheer me up or make me smile. he loved his church family.
he is at peace now and in a better place.. sending love to Pam which he would always say was always there for him and she was his rock..also to mike always be proud of the dad you had he was a good good man as he was a dad.
I will miss his calls and talking to him, but like he would always say God has a plan and i'am thankful i'am in his plan. RIP my dear cuz

“ Ben lived with us when he got discharged from the Army he was one of the family. We shared so many laughs together. He inspired me to enter the Army (Good or Bad)??? Every time we would come to Chattanooga on leave we done our best to get over to spend some time with Ben and Wanda. As I look back over the many years that we both lived I can think of many things about life that I was taught by Ben. I feel confident in believing that he made the correct decision with Jesus our Lord and savior and I will see him again. Rest in peace Cuz I love you man
