“ So many memories of Benny and Jackie and their girls when we were growing up. We were neighbors for years and I still think of the house as Jackie and Benny's when I drive by. Mama still lives just down the road. We all went to Church together and I have so many wonderful memories. We still talk about them and wondered where they had moved to because we sure have missed them. Benny was such a good man and someone I always looked up to as I was growing up. Love and prayers to his family. We still love you all. Pam and Pat Hamby

“ *Jackie & Family,
So sad for you to hear of Benny's passing. May the God of all comfort help you through this most difficult time. What a Blessing to know that Benny is now in the arms of God, & you will be reunited in God's timing. You & Benny were always a blessing & encouragement to us; and I dare say, to all who knew you. Please know that you are in our prayers. Carol & Doyle Waters*

“ I have several memories of my uncle... Naturally, he will be remembered as a humble, peaceful easy going and loving husband, father and uncle. My most lasting memory will be that of a fine Christian man. I remember how eager he was when our families would visit and the conversations that he would have with my father about the God, The Bible, The Gospel and the Christian walk. As they got older, I'm sure those conversations included Heaven. Sunday, I fully believe that they met in the Welcoming Room and those discussions turned from wonder and speculation to the amazement of being together with their King and the many family members, church members, friends and those in heaven that they didn't even know of the impact they had on countless lives.

“ Benjamin (Benny) Castleberry wasn't too sure about Chris and I being ready to get married back in 1988, but we proved him wrong, I am not sure if he knew this or not, but we are still together and spoke of him often. I thought of him just the other day when my husband was at physical therapy and realized he has an appointment on our anniversary. I think what made Benny think it was crazy for us to get married after such a short time wasn't time, but rather he wasn't sure about the day and date, not many people would choose to get married on a Friday the 13th, I remember Benny saying that he would have chosen a different day. We will miss him dearly. May the grace of God be with Jackie and their Family. God bless you all. Chris and Tammy Kiker
