

Bertha (Ninny) Edith (Hall) Parkerson

September 25, 1923 - November 23, 2018

Bertha (Ninny) Edith (Hall) Parkerson, 95 years young Born September 25, 1923, gained her angel wings Thursday, November 23, 2018

She was married for 60 years to Johnnie C. Parkerson who gained his wings January 7, 2004. She was very much the southern lady, always taking care of family and everyone else she would meet. When it came to cooking, she could cook meals that would please any aristocrat. Her life was devoted to her Lord and her family.

Ninny has many family members waiting to greet her in heaven. Her husband Johnnie; her son Jackie as well as her mother, Minnie Hall; father, Nathan Hall and her brother Roy Hall.

Ninny's contribution to WWII was working at Red Stone Arsenal; she also retired from Coats America which was previously Standard Coosa Thacher. She is survived by her son Mickey (Sheila) Parkerson; granddaughter, Karen Parkerson; granddaughter, Jeana (Zach) Lee; great grandson, Aiden Lee and adopted grandson Jerome Gordon. Also survived by brother, Clarence (Alta) Hall of Scottsboro AL, Hazel Broadway of Edgewater FL as well as several nieces and nephews.

Her greatest pleasure was always being surrounded by family and friends. A special thank you for the love and care given over the last 3 years at NHC Rossville, where she adopted many more grandchildren.
