“ I will always remember the many holiday and family gatherings at the old house on Castleberry Avenue. All of us grandkids would run around and play or jump on Grannies big antique bed. I loved being there with my family and getting hugs from my many aunts and uncles. I still have frequent dreams of that house and those times that have passed. I love my Granny and Papa (and Jason) and will keep them in my thoughts at every get together that my life will hold.

“ My brother, Fletcher Denton, and I were discussing the Scott family last Sunday. What a surprise to read of your Mother's passing in the newspaper this morning. We lived across from your family on N. Hickory Valley Road years and years ago. We have many memories of you; the children, your Mother and Dad and your Grandmother Watkins. We even have memories of Alvie and Leonard. Times go by but good happy memories last forever. Both of our parents are deceased.

We are terribly sorry for your loss and send our sincere sympathies to each one. My God's love and grace bring you peace always, but especially at this particular time..
