“ I would just like everyone to know about the brother we lost. He had a wild streak about him, done something's he never should have done but haven't we all !
But I can tell you anyone especially his sisters and brothers ever needed help with thier home or anything to be repaired Bill was the first there! He worked a full day on my home remodeling, he NEVER took a penny from any of us. We all love you Bill, you are already so so sadly missed and always will be.
