“Little Bobby” was my cousin. As with all family we grow up and sometimes grow apart, but we always come together like family with smiles and hugs. I can remember when Bobby was in Highschool he enjoyed putting together model cars and he would display them in his bedroom. They were always really neat to see. We would go camping with family at a place called “camp Dixie” and they had a “pool hall in the visitor lodge. We would spend hours playing pool. He always enjoyed that. His mama Grace is such a wonderful lady and I will always have a special place in my heart for them.
