“ I was driving around my old stomping grounds last weekend wondering about this great man. From coaching me in football and running, to mentoring me in life. He never knew what he did for this young man. Bobby, I thank God he brought you into my life, and thank you for all the memories you gave me in my youth and in preparing me for life. RIP, and well done on this earth my friend. Those conversations on the roads and trails of the Chickamauga Battlefield will remain cherished in my heart and mind.

“ Bobby was the greatest Father-in-law God could ever gift to a daughter-in-law. He and I had the sweetest connection. We always laughed and punned jokes back and forth. His arms was always wide open and a smile to boot. I loved Bobby so very much. He will be forever missed in my heart.

“ Bobby was such a kind loving man and part of my family for over 30 years and to facing tomorrow without seeing his face and hearing voice at our family gathering is going to be so hard. But he will always remain in our hearts and thoughts. He will be so missed.
