“ My Mother the most forgiving woman I have ever known! She never threw anybody away, once you were a part of her life, you remained there forever... Her love remains endless! Her home was always open for anyone and everyone that needed a place, a meal, financial help... If she had, she shared!

Over the past few years, I spent many a night on the phone with Mother sometimes for an hour or two, just talking, reminiscing and reading the news about family & friends off Facebook. She enjoyed knowing what was going on with her family, even though she wasn't able to participate... She Loved each and every member of the family and always looked forward to the yearly reunion.

“ Making peanut butter sandwiches for Preston at 4am, Doublemint gum, telling us it was all going to be ok when Pappaw passed, 11pm conversations because she never slept, flat biscuits and gravy, toast in the oven, corn dogs and egg rolls, calling Savannah Samantha because it was "close enough"...these are just a few of the memories I have of the incredible woman I called Mammaw. God blessed me more than I could ever have asked for when he gave me Bonnie Massey as my grandmother. I am grateful for the 35 years I had her and grateful she is finally at peace. Beulah Land is even sweeter now.
