“ So sad! She was a sweet person. I remember when your dad and Brenda were dating. She would sing a lot of Elvis song. I loved Elvis. She had the prettiest voice I had ever heard. She will be missed. Wished I could have seen her more. We moved to Calhoun. Didn't get up that way any more much.

“ As I was telling my husband about her passing ,he did not remember her at first,his memory is going on as good as it can, ,but when i told him about when all of us grown ups played ball in the field of old Osburn school and she was running and hit the bas and we all heard her bone snap he knew excatly who I was talking about....he said he was sorry to hear that she had passed, so was I. I know her children and grandchildren will miss her,
