“ Coach Mayo and family,

I am so sorry for the loss of Mrs. Mayo. I am truly blessed to say I was one of her students and I loved her very much. Mrs Mayo was truly a blessing in my life. I know she was a blessing in yours. She will truly be missed. Everyime I saw Coach Mayo I would always ask how is Mrs Mayo doing. You could leave a class having a bad day and she would cheer you up with that smile and your day just got brighter. The good ole days at Rossville High I will always cherish.

“ Dear Mayo family,
I am sorry to here of Brenda's passing but I know it has been a long difficult road for all of you. Once again Coach taught us about unconditional love. I have many great memories of all of our times together and hold each of you in a special place in my heart. I am sorry for your loss but I am so glad that I got to be part of this family. May the love of your friends support you in the days ahead, the great memories of such a wonderful lady fill your heart and may you have peace knowing you will all meet again.
Love.

“ Coach Mayo, Melissa, Joi, & Jay,

I am thinking and praying for comfort for the entire family. As I think about Mrs. Mayo, I remember her sweet smile and her commitment to all of the Bulldogs of Rossville. A thought of Joi and I sitting in the scorer's box (above the concession stand) of the ball field and keeping score just came to mind. Ahh, the memories. Such a sweet lady that impacted the lives of many of the youth in Rossville.

“ Brenda taught across the hall from me from the time RHS opened until she retired. Brenda ran a very structured classroom, and she shared methods, ideas, posters, worksheets, and lots of laughter and fun. She was a very special person to me and to her students. Right before she retired, she and I got on my jet ski and rode for a couple of hours on the Tennessee River. We had a wonderful time. Ed and I will keep her family in our thoughts and meditations.
