I've known Brian most of my life. His mother Ann was present when I was born. Brian and I were life long friends from grade school up to high school and beyond. He was at my home on weekends and we played computer games for years. We even took a senior trip together. It's hard for me to type this because of all the fond memories I have had with him come flooding back. Brian had a way of making you feel good just being around him and I'll never forget his smile. Thanks for being who you were buddy I'll miss you. Rob Randall
