“ Condolences to the family of Bri Stanley. You were always a happy and positive person to be around. Don't think we would have met and be friends if it wasn't for my best friend, Brent that brought all the positive people in my life. You're gone but not forgotten. Watch over and continue to guide us on a positive life. -Andrey

“ Brii was one of the kindest souls and always had the most positive attitudes of anyone I knew. Brii made every day feel like a celebration. I never knew of anyone who couldn't smile when she spoke to anyone. She put everyone in a great energy and spirit with whatever we were doing
