“ Brittany was an amazing person, that came in to family's life almost a year and a half ago. This woman took to my two girls as if they were her own. She loved my babies as much as I did. We had the same views on everything that came with co-parenting. She was my side kick and we always called each other wifey. We told people we were married and didn't claim Joey, lol. But she showed him and I that it is possible to raise our girls together even being with separate people. My husband, Joey, Brittany and myself did many things together with all 4 kids. We know you have your wings and you are watching over everyone of us. And one day we will all be together again.

“ I still cant believe this is happening. We lived together most of our childhood and grew up more like sisters than cousins. We told eachother everything. I still have every letter you wrote me when we were kids and you had to move away. This is so messed up. This sucks! I cant believe your gone. Things will never be the same without you. I love you and would give anything to have you back.
