“ Carl and Diane were our neighbors at Coosawattee. Carl was always welcoming, kind, and neighborly in every way. It was always a pleasure to see them both. James and I are deeply saddened by his passing, and send our heartfelt condolences to Diane and their children. God bless and keep you all. Laurie McDowell and James Black

“ Carl was one of the nicest men that I have ever had the privilege to meet and be a friend to. I loved the times that he and Diana invited me over to have breakfast with them. He made wonderful homemade biscuits and I would bring homemade muscadine jelly to go in them. Man, what I would give to have just one more breakfast with them! Carl always had kind things to say and always had a big smile while he was saying it. Carl, I sure loved you and will always miss you my friend.
