“ Mr. Carl was a very a special person and one whom I will always remember and have fond memories of. I enjoyed the times we were able to share with him. He would always recall the time he drove us through the mountains which he always chuckled about. He had a special patient way about him that made you feel at home and loved. Our sympathies and prayers go out to Mrs. Peggy, Cheryl, Carla and the grandchildren. There is no doubt he will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him. I can only imagine Mr. Carl and my father laughing together and enjoying each other's company once again. They had a very special bond that was forged while they were in the Marine Corps that lasted their entire lifetimes. Hopefully, one day we will all be reunited with them in that place of peace.

“ Chery I am sorry for your loss. Many prayers to you and your family. Your Dad is with God now and not suffering and one day you will be with him . You look alot like your Dad. May God lead you through this loss and give you strength to help your Mom in her grief and yours. I love you dearest friend.

“ I want to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Carl and Mrs. Games. I am so glad i met him and mrs games. I took my dad and my mom many years ago to see Mr. Carl. It was good see how close my dad and Mr. Carl were. They were good marine corp buddies. Its like they knew each other all of their lives. They could have passed for brothers. I was very happy that I could spend time with both of them and not realizing that my dad would have passed away a short time after. There is a picture of my dad and mr. games in a railrow engineers car. They made a great picture together. I am sure my dad and he are having great conversations today.
One thing I have learned you have to treasure each day. The greatest treasure a person can have is friendship and it is better than pure gold.
I am keeping the family in prayer during this difficult time. But remember we will see them onces again.
