“ I remember the first time I met Big Boy(that was his nickname) I was expecting to see a big guy. Boy was I wrong. He might have been small in statue but so was Little David in the Bible and look what he did. I am sure that Big Boy slew a lot of giants in his lifetime. I believe this was the biggest one of all. Grave where's your victory Death where's your sting. REST IN PEACE MAN OF GOD... WE LOVE YOU...

“ Carlos was my precious, precious friend. I'll treasure the countless visits from him in my home and the meals we've shared together over these many years. A man whose reputation was stellar and a man who lived out his Christianity for the world to see. "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ" describes him well. I'm thankful for the opportunities to worship with Carlos at Spring Creek Church of God, East Chattanooga Church of God and Redemption Point Church. A faithful friend to me and more importantly a faithful servant to the Lord Jesus Christ. His whole hearts desire was to see his family completely surrender to Jesus and serve Him faithfully to the end. Carlos left a legacy of committed faith and a testimony to a life surrendered to Christ. His family and friends would do well to follow his example. My precious friend...I'll remember him always and cherish the memory of his life. In this life, he never fulfilled his life long dream of visiting Paris, but for Carlos today it doesn't matter. Paris is a ghetto compared to the sights he's enjoying this very moment. Carlos can now worship "his way" without constraint. My friend is free. Forever loved; my friend, Carlos Goins.
