“ My first memories of Carol was riding the bus home from school in elementary school. We sat together often and she was always so sweet and kind to me. I remember even now her beautiful blue eyes. We were in the band together in high school and graduated together. Not so many years ago she was a God-send to me when my grandmother was in the nursing home. Had it not been for Carol I would not have made it to my Grandmother's side before she passed. Carol is a sweet memory for me my whole life and I cannot believe she is no longer with us. Eternal Rest Grant unto her O Lord and may Perpetual Light shine upon her. May her kindness to me be remembered for all eternity. May her family rest in the Peace of Christ.

She loved You, your mom, sister, and brother dearly. ❤️ She would still talk and laugh about the day you and I were playing outside and I fell from the tree and broke my wrist. 😂

Shirley it saddens my heart to read of Carol's passing. I just seen her obituary today, even though Sharon Evans posted it on 12-30-18. I will keep you in my heartfelt prayers.

“ Cparol you always had a wonderful smile and i will miss just knowing you are no longer here and posting regarding your "grand punks". Never heard this before and if i ever hear it again i will tink of you. We had lots of good times at school 3rd through 10th girl you will always be considered a friend of mine. Time took us down different roads but but time also let us reconnect. Devastation is all i can say. Rest in peace you wonderful warrriorette. Karin King Norman

Love you Sis! Miss you already! It's not going to be easy!! But I know your out of pain now. So very hard to believe ..Just having faith in Jesus Christ helps with the grieving that will intense before the healing can begin.My heart is broken..just doesn't seem right!!😞 Till we meet again!❤️Remember you said you will wait and meet me on the other side if you pass before me..😞💔Love you Carol🌹 RIP Sis!!!❤️ So strong And so brave!!!💔🌹❤️
